In recognition of National Apprenticeship Week, please join us to learn about the Registered Apprenticeship Model and how to use available tools to navigate sponsorship or seek an apprenticeship career. This webinar is designed to give individuals and business employers an overview of Registered Apprenticeship; an industry-driven, high-quality career pathway where employers can develop and prepare their future workforce, and individuals can obtain paid work experience, receive progressive wage increases, classroom instruction, and a portable, nationally recognized credential.

Daniel Correnti is a Project Manager for Business Engagement and Sector Strategies, which includes the areas of Apprenticeship, Business Services, and Industry Partnerships.
